Hello to everyone back at school from Phillip Island. Hopefully you can see from the photos on the last page that we are having a fabulous time!

Our community continues to grow, with the Edwards family starting at Hesket this week. Logan has started in the Junior grade and has settled in already, making lots of great friends. Welcome to Hesket Primary!

Students of the Week

Congratulations to Robert and Matilda who were awarded last week's Student of the Week award. Robert has been concentrating hard on his spelling and Matilda wrote a lovely letter to the Romsey CWA to thank them for their donation towards our skipping ropes. Well done to both of you!

Remember

There is no assembly this week.

Remembrance Day

On the 11th of November, Robert and Max will travel to the Woodend Remembrance Day service. They will represent Hesket Primary School by reading a poem on the day.

People traditionally wear red poppy pins on their jackets and hats in the lead up to Remembrance Day. Woodend R.S.L has kindly donated a poppy to each of our students. Outside the office, there are poppies for sale to our school community.

Subway/Canteen

Tomorrow there will be no canteen or Subway.

Lunch Orders

We would like your feedback on whether students and families would prefer a fortnightly sushi order, instead of a school canteen order.

Super Sushi in Kyneton deliver to a number of local schools on a Friday. Here is a copy of the menu.

Sushi hand rolls @ $3.00 each:

- Tuna
- Tuna/avocado
- Teriyaki Chicken
- Veg
- Avocado

Japanese Chicken Curry - $5

Egg Fried Rice- $5

Homemade Large Chicken or Veg Spring rolls $5

GF Japanese fried chicken $5

Beef or Veg Steamed Gyoza Dumplings $5 (serve of 4)

If the consensus is that students and families would prefer to stay with canteen on the alternate Friday, then we will leave things as they are.

Please give your feedback on the following slip.
